Miss Laura Smithson and mother, Mrs. R. H. Smithson, visited Mrs. J. M. Gillison last week. The friends of Mrs. Gillison will regret to learn that she is in quite a feeble condition, owing to a diseased foot and ankle, being able to be up only a short while at intervals during the day.

Ebenezer News.

Ebenezer, April 10.—Special: Mrs. W. J. Hunt left Saturday for Pendleton, where she will spend a week with her mother.

Mrs. Moon and little daughter, of Greer, spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Vaughn.

The many friends of Mrs. John Wald will be pleased to know that her condition is much improved.

Roy Vaughn, who has been ill for several days, we are glad to know, is able to be up.

Miss Tena Wald is improving rapidly. We hope she will soon be well. Mrs. W. J. Huskamp is reported better at this writing.

T. W. Leeroy, who is engaged in business in Tennessee, was called home last week on account of the illness of his daughter, Miss Lillian. Her condition is much improved.

Jim Elliott is suffering with pneumonia. We hope he may soon recover.

A. H. Dagnall, of Anderson, made an interesting and impressive address at the school building last Thursday night. His remarks were based on education in the rural schools.

School closed at this place on Friday, April 7th. This session was one of general improvement and development throughout. Truly a more perfect faculty of teachers could not be had in the county. J. H. Earle is an excellent teacher, ever ready and willing to lend assistance or speak a word of encouragement to his pupils. Thus it is with regret that we give him up as teacher. He will leave next week for his home in Pickens. Misses Addie Davis and Margaret Hill are also excellent teachers, and we wish to commend the trustees for securing them for next session. Miss Davis left Monday for her home at Liberty. Miss Hill has been at Walhalla two weeks on account of the illness of her mother.

Villa Was Wounded in Kree.

Washington, April 10.—An overnight dispatch from Gen. Funston, made public by the War Department, says Gen. Pershing explains infrequency of communication by the fact that the wireless is unable to work and aeroplanes can't find suitable landing places. The report that Villa was severely wounded in the right knee is confirmed.
